Background of this Case

Plaintiff is an inmate at the Evans Correctional Institution of the South Carolina Department of Corrections (“SCDC”). Defendant is an employee of the SCDC at its headquarters in Columbia. The “STATEMENT OF CLAIM” portion of the Complaint reveals that this civil rights action arises out of Plaintiff’s challenge to the allegedly negligent calculation of his release date. On page 2 of the Complaint, Plaintiff indicates that this civil action is for “negligence for my time[.]”

Plaintiff’s answers on page 2 of the Complaint also show that he filed a grievance on July 1, 2012, which was the day before he signed the Complaint. Plaintiff alleges or contends that his “time” (prison sentence) is “up[.]” Plaintiff states that he was sentenced in 2006 to a term of six years, but that the South Carolina Department of Corrections has calculated his sentence as eight years. According to Plaintiff, his sentence should expire in 2012, but he alleges the SCDC has informed him that his sentence expires in December of 2015. In his prayer for relief, Plaintiff writes: “I want the court to let me go[.]”

The SCDCorrections website (<https://sword.doc.state.sc.us/scdc-public/>, last visited on August 29, 2012) indicates that Plaintiff is serving a nine-year sentence for indecent exposure. Plaintiff's sentence "start date" is September 20, 2006, although his admission date to the SCDC was February 28, 2007. According to the SCDC website, Plaintiff's projected release date is March 29, 2013.

Standard of Review

Under established local procedure in this judicial district, a careful review has been made of the pro se Complaint pursuant to the procedural provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915, 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, and the Prison Litigation Reform Act. The review* has been conducted in light of the following precedents: Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 31–35 (1992); Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324–25 (1989); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 519 (1972)(per curiam); Nasim v. Warden, Maryland House of Corr., 64 F.3d 951, 953–56 (4th Cir. 1995)(en banc); Todd v. Baskerville, 712 F.2d 70, 71–74 (4th Cir. 1983); Loe v. Armistead, 582 F.2d 1291, 1295–96 (4th Cir. 1978); and Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147, 1151 (4th Cir. 1978). Plaintiff is a pro se litigant, and thus his pleadings are accorded liberal construction. See Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 90–95 (2007)(per curiam); Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 5, 9–10 (1980)(per curiam); Cruz v. Beto, 405 U.S. 319, 321–23 (1972)(per curiam). When a federal court is evaluating a pro se complaint or petition, a plaintiff's or petitioner's allegations are assumed to be true. Merriweather v. Reynolds, 586 F. Supp. 2d 548, 554 (D.S.C. 2008). Nonetheless, a litigant must plead factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant or respondent is plausibly liable, not merely possibly liable. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1951–52 (2009). Even when considered under this less stringent standard, the Complaint is subject to summary dismissal. The requirement of liberal construction does not mean that the court can ignore a clear failure in the pleading to allege facts which set forth a claim currently cognizable in a federal district court. Weller v. Dep’t of Social Servs., 901 F.2d 387, 390–91 (4th Cir. 1990).

*Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 DSC, the undersigned is authorized to review such complaints for relief and submit findings and recommendations to the District Court.

Discussion

The relief requested by Plaintiff — release from prison — is not available in a civil rights action. See Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477, 481 (1994) (stating that “habeas corpus is the exclusive remedy for a state prisoner who challenges the fact or duration of his confinement and seeks immediate or speedier release, even though such a claim may come within the literal terms of § 1983”); Johnson v. Ozmint, 567 F. Supp. 2d 806, 823 (D.S.C. 2008) (release from prison is not a remedy available under 42 U.S.C. § 1983).

Plaintiff’s available federal remedy is a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 or 28 U.S.C. § 2254, which can be filed only after Plaintiff has exhausted his state court remedies. See 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b); Picard v. Connor, 404 U.S. 270, 275–77 (1971); Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court, 410 U.S. 484, 490–91 (1973) (exhaustion also required under 28 U.S.C. § 2241).

In any event, Plaintiff cannot bring a civil rights action based on negligence. Negligence is not actionable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. See Daniels v. Williams, 474 U.S. 327, 328–36 & n. 3 (1986); Davidson v. Cannon, 474 U.S. 344, 345–48 (1986); Ruefly v. Landon, 825 F.2d 792, 793–94 (4th Cir. 1987). Secondly, 42 U.S.C. § 1983 does not impose liability for violations of duties of care arising under state law. DeShaney v. Winnebago Cnty. Dep’t of Social Servs., 489 U.S. 189, 200–03

(1989) (Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment does not transform every tort committed by a state actor into a constitutional violation).

Recommendation

Accordingly, it is recommended that the District Court dismiss the above-captioned case without prejudice and without service of process. Plaintiff's attention is directed to the Notice on the next page.

Notice of Right to File Objections to Report and Recommendation

Plaintiff is advised that he may file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation with the District Judge. Objections must specifically identify the portions of the Report and Recommendation to which objections are made and the basis for such objections. “[I]n the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must ‘only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.’” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310 (4th Cir. 2005) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 72 advisory committee’s note).

Specific written objections must be filed within fourteen (14) days of the date of service of this Report and Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b); see Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a), (d). Filing by mail pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5 may be accomplished by mailing objections to:

Larry W. Propes, Clerk of Court
United States District Court
901 Richland Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Failure to timely file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation will result in waiver of the right to appeal from a judgment of the District Court based upon such Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985); Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985); United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984).
